

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions.

2. It also emphasizes the need for regular audits to ensure compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

3.

4. The document further outlines the procedures for handling disputes and resolving conflicts.

5. Finally, it provides a detailed overview of the reporting requirements and the consequences of non-compliance.

pediatricians, and offers advice on financial planning and spending. Her health plan and doctor communicate electronically, thereby improving care while reducing costs.

A primary difficulty in creating this benefits management portal is that each product is administered by a separate business entity with only one part of the overall product picture.

July 15, 2008 ■

